With this e-mail we also would like to inform and assure you that the situation in Estonia is stable. Our everyday life has continued on a regular basis and Estonian Aviation Academy functions in the same manner as before.

This spring semester started in the form of contact studies and this continues - lectures are being delivered 100% at the Academy. If anything changes during the coming weeks, we will inform the students and our partners immediately.

If your students need any consultation or assistance then students can always contact me - Inna Bentsalo inna.bentsalo@eava.ee

Estonian Aviation Academy has made a statement regarding the situation. Please feel free to read it here: <https://lennuakadeemia.ee/academy/news/statement-from-the-vice-rector-for-education>.

Hope you can kindly share my e-mail and admission information with your students.

Best Regards from Estonia and take care!
